ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

A heifer belonging to Hugh Teachout of Essex Junction was found dead in J. H. Douglass' pasture Wednesday morning. It had been shot presumably for a deer.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed Wednesday by George H. Webb, a laborer of Derby. He has liabilities of $360 and assets of $294.61, of which $100 are claimed exempt.

Hermion Regan shot an eight-year-old buck deer on Rice Hill, Shelton, which weighed 322 pounds. It had eight prongs on its horns. This large buck has been seen on Rice hill for two or three years and has been shot at several times.

Dr. W. Seward Webb of the painful attack of rheumatism which confined him to the house for several weeks and which made his attendance at the nuptials of Miss Webb and Mr. Pulitzer almost prohibitive.

One day last week a man named Senna from Williston, in the employ of Edward Bradford, while threshing for Truman Burritt of Hinesburg, was kicked in the face by a horse and badly injured. Several teeth were knocked out, and he was otherwise painfully bruised, but, fortunately no bones were broken.

The list of names of men to whom liquor cannot be sold is increasing day by day and the total number which the Burlington dealers have to look out for is 780. These names have been gathered ever since the new law went into effect and a number have become habitual drunkards.

North Bennington persons are fitting up the building that formed a part of the old Wattle's mill on East Main street, for the purpose of making spools and brush backs. The Kendall Bros. are putting the mill in shape for the new business. A considerable number of men will be employed.

Mrs. Fanny Hale of Morrisville, who is 91 years of age, drives from her home in Morrisville to the Mount Mansfield creamery in Stowe, a distance of four miles, with milk from her dairy every day. Mrs. Hale is probably the oldest woman in the State who delivers milk to a creamery in person from such a distance.

A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Seaver of Montgomery Center, visited them Monday evening October 23 to remind them that it was the 25th anniversary of their marriage and left gifts of silver, etc., that are substantial souvenirs of the occasion. All had a very pleasant evening. Cake and ice cream were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Willett celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary yesterday and in honor of the occasion a dinner was served at Crescent Beach Inn to about 15 relatives by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whalstrom, the latter being a daughter of the aged couple. The dinner was served in true Crescent Beach Inn style and a profusion of flowers decorated the tables.

Mrs. D. O. Bullock of West Milton picked a half pint of black berries in their garden last week, the bushes have been in the garden for 16 years and this is the first time they have borne fruit. They are very large berries and very juicy and it is thought the reason of their bearing this year is the large quantity of sand deposited in the garden by the high water a year ago.

The marriage engagement of Miss Sara Reid Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Park, of Salt Lake City, Utah, to Lieut. Royden E. Beebe of the 29th Inf. U. S. A., a graduate of the University of Vermont, Burlington, in the class of 1900, is announced. The wedding will take place in mid-winter. Lieutenant Beebe has served three years in the Philippines and is now stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah.

The cattle commissioners have tested the cattle of three farmers in Richmond. In the herd of M. S. Whitcomb who has dairies on three farms, one in Bolton, and has considerably more than 200 head of cattle, 138 of them were pronounced unsound. Mr. White has 90 head of cattle and 55 of them were condemned. Thaddeus Stevens has some 50 head of cattle and 24 head responded to the test. The cattle commissioners have shipped from Richmond eight carloads of condemned cattle to Massachusetts to be killed at rendering plants. There is still a large herd that is to be shipped to the Burlington rendering plant.

The apple crop in the vicinity of St. Albans is proving better than in many parts of the country, and probably better than was anticipated earlier in the season. Six carloads have already been shipped from that station. C. G. Baker, of Burlington, has loaded one car; F. E. Foot, of Middlebury, has loaded three cars; and H. T. Collins, of St. Albans, has loaded two cars and expects to load at least one more. Other buyers who probably get two or three more cars more as there are known to be some large lots which are not yet marketed. On account of the rainy season the red apples lack color, though the McIntosh Reds are very good. Snows, Northern Spies, Baldwins, etc., are of good quality but off color.

Inquiry in the territory covered by the Northern Telephone company about Enosburg Falls shows positively that four deer have been taken with rumors of two others having been killed. J. W. Hathaway in Enosburg shot one Monday with horns about eight inches long. He weighed 150 pounds. Gardner Hunt of West Berkshire shot a four-year-old in Shelton, which dressed 210 pounds. William Safford in Franklin brought down a five-year-old which weighed about 200 pounds. Harmon Reagan seduced a splendid specimen, eight years old, which weighed 320 pounds. Leach of Fairfax and Hanna of Highgate were each successful but no particulars could be learned. Montgomery Center reported all able bodied men but one on the war path or in camp but no big game brought down.

The barn of John Kane on what is known as the Sam Everett place in West Milton was burned Saturday evening with all its contents which consisted of nearly all the fodder he had for winter. A new mowing machine and a span of horses. One horse was old and not worth much but the other was young and one of his working team. The origin of the fire is a mystery as no one lives in the house and every thing was all right when he left there after doing his chores. The interior of the building must have been a solid sheet of flame before it broke out as the fire only lasted a short time after it was discovered. Mr. Kane is a young man, who has bought his farm and is paying for it by his own hard work. Nearly all he had raised the past year was in the barn.

A Double Wedding Anniversary.

The twenty-seventh anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Hutchins of Morrisville and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Peck of Hyde Park occurred on last Sunday and the occasion was quietly observed at the pleasant home of the former couple, where a few intimate friends were entertained at dinner and during the afternoon. Those present were Geo. F. Earle and wife, C. A. Spiller and wife, George Tillotson and wife and Harry Hutchesins and wife of this place and Ira Grout and wife of Elmore. The occasion was a very pleasant one and both couples have a host of friends, who wish them many similar occasions.

The Verdict on Poultry Food.

The wise merchant respects the opinions of his customers. W. F. George of South Ryegate explains why he handles the line of Poultry Food that he does. Here is his letter: "I have been selling Page's Perfected Poultry Food for several years and my customers not only give your goods high praise as promoters of profit by inducing rapid and vigorous growth in young stock and prolific egg-production in the matured hen, but back their opinions with duplicate orders."
